1.0 General

1.1 Name

The name of the Hall of Fame shall be the Bendigo Football Netball League Hall of Fame.

1.2 Objective

The objective of the Bendigo Football Netball League Hall of Fame is to recognise those outstanding individuals that have made a significant contribution to Australian Rules Football in the Bendigo Football Netball League. Specifically:

- Players
- Coaches
- Administrators
- Umpires
- Media

1.3 Scope

The Bendigo Football Netball League Hall of Fame will be an elite body with a limited membership based on stringent criteria principally based on performances or activities in the Bendigo Football Netball League.

2.0 Hall of Fame

2.1 Brief History

First inaugurated in 1986 the Bendigo Football League Hall of Fame was meant to recognise the efforts of footballers/coaches that had made significant contributions to the game in the BFL. The first twenty inductions were presented at a gala night and inductions were meant to be undertaken every ten years. A subsequent twelve players were inducted in 1996, but it has lapsed since then.

The Bendigo Football Netball League Board has a unique opportunity under the auspices of Project 130 to reinstate the Hall of Fame as the pinnacle of Bendigo's proud football traditions.
